

Annual for all devices

Devices

I understand I don't own my device/s. They are on loan. I understand that access to the internet is a privilege, not a right. I promise to take care of my devices, and to keep them safe, covered and charged.

Passwords

I promise always to let you know my passwords, and I will not share them with others.

Controls

I understand that you install parental controls for my safety. I promise not to break them, and I understand if I do there will be consequences.

Manners

I promise to use good manners online. I will not write things that I wouldn't want said to me or wouldn't say in real life to another person.

School Rules

I will follow school rules when using my device/s at all times.

Personal Info

I will NEVER share personal or family information online. No phone numbers, addresses, or very personal pictures. Ever.

Online Friends

I promise I will not friend people online unless I actually know them. I will NEVER meet with someone I only know online.

Online Accounts

I promise I will never setup an online account without permission.

Online Chat

I promise I will not enter a chat room, and will only message/email people approved by my parents.

Routines

I will have self-control. I have talked through and agreed on my routine, and I will stick to it.

Annual for all devices

Get Off Grid

I promise to enjoy time offline. I will spend time without my devices, including real-life social time and time doing physical activities.

Respect Money

I understand that buying apps, charms, levels, skins and the like costs money. I promise I will never buy these things without permission.

Real Friends

I promise to be a good and loyal friend, both online and offline. I will not bully others.

Real Sharing

I promise to tell you whenever I see, say or hear something that makes me uncomfortable.

Breakdowns

I understand that when I mess up, I may lose my devices and privileges. I understand this is part of learning to be responsible online.

Communication

If I get upset, I'll walk away from the keyboard and chill. I won't react to anyone online out of anger or hurt.

Banned Content

I won't try to access content that I know I'm not allowed to access, or search for anything that I wouldn't search for in front of my parents.

Pictures

I will not send or receive pictures that I would not want my friends, teachers, or family to see. This includes rude pictures. I understand that everything that is posted online stays online forever and can affect me in later life.

Family Time

I will not lock myself in my room. I will spend time with my family, participate in meals and chores, and be involved.

And in consideration of your promises, as your parent I promise that I will:

- Set these boundaries with you and with your best interests in my mind.
- Definitely not always get it right. I'm learning too, but I'm on your side.
- Look out for you and monitor what you do online and on your devices. It's my job as your parent to protect you and I will do whatever it takes to keep you safe and happy.
- Discipline you when you mess up, I will be firm but fair and we'll work through problems and solutions together.
- Reward you if you do what you promise here, if you are consistent and responsible, if you do your best at school and strive for positive relationships with your friends and family.
